Yiddish book drive under way today

A country-wide drive to collect old Yiddish literature - including rare books, manuscripts, newspapers, and pamphlets - is being organized by Yiddish Book Center. The goal is to create a research center for Yiddish literature. The drive will be held at Monticello Library on Broadway, in New York City.

On the calendar

Monticello Jewish Community Center on Park Avenue. A pickup service will be available for those interested in volunteering to help with the collection. Anyone interested in volunteering to help with the collection is invited to call 744-6044.

The program will include a question and answer period and refreshments. The meeting is open to the public. Further information: 744-6444.

Altar server training will be held at 9 a.m. on Saturday, and a second session will be held on Dec. 7, also at the Cherry Hill Bazaar. For further information, call 744-6040.

The Sullivan County Chapter of the American Red Cross is sponsoring a workshop called "Communication Between Parents and Children" at its monthly general meeting on Nov. 29. The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the Sullivan County Community Center in Monticello. The workshop will cover topics such as communication skills and strategies for dealing with children. For further information, call 744-6040.